

Diamond Gala

December, 2018

Dear Friend,

The Salvation Army National Capital Area Command will host the 2nd Annual Diamond Gala on March 9, 2019 at the Fairmont Hotel in the heart of the Nation's Capital. The purpose of the Diamond Gala is to raise funds and awareness for The Salvation Army's Anti-Human Trafficking Program.

The Salvation Army has cared for survivors of human trafficking since its founding in England in 1865. Today our fight is more imperative than ever, especially in the National Capital region. The Salvation Army is filling a critical gap in the Anti-Human Trafficking effort. In the summer of 2018, The Salvation Army National Capital Area Command officially opened its Anti-Human Trafficking Program, including an emergency shelter and crisis response team to support adult survivors throughout Washington, D.C., suburban Maryland, Northern Virginia, and beyond.

The Inaugural Diamond Gala was a great success, and more information on the event, including several videos and sponsor information from the 2018 Diamond Gala, can be found online at SalvationArmyNCA.org/DiamondGala.

To support this effort on behalf of Human Trafficking victims, The Salvation Army National Capital Area Command invites you to join us at the Fairmont Hotel on March 9, 2019 for our 2nd Annual Diamond Gala. Enclosed are sponsorship options to assist you in finding the right level for your budget. If you are unable to sponsor, but wish to join us, tickets can be reserved online at www.SalvationArmy.org/DiamondGala.

By partnering with The Salvation Army, you can help us raise awareness and expand knowledge of The Salvation Army's mission to bring restoration to women and men who have been exploited. If you have questions or need more information, please contact Major Leisa Hall at leisa.hall@uss.salvationarmy.org or 202-756-2600. Thank you for your consideration of this opportunity.

Sincerely,

James M. Hall ; Major
Area Commander
